

BY-LAWS PROPOSAL 2ND READING

SUNDAY, APRIL 8, 2018

Proposed By-Laws amendment submitted to the Recording Secretary on March 11, 2018 by Joe Simonetta Jr.

1)

WHEREAS: Article 6, Section 3-e of the Local Union 1005 By-Laws provides language relating to the nominations and election of Officers and Delegates

WHEREAS: Article 6, Section 3-e reads:

“Eligible members shall be permitted to submit a letter of nomination for only one post, either delegate or alternate delegate.

1. Members receiving the highest number of votes in the delegate election shall be the delegates. The number of delegates will be determined by the International Union’s Constitutional call letter.
2. Local 1005 will elect alternate convention delegates as per Article 8, Section 8 of the UAW Constitution; therefore, Local 1005 will accept nominations for the positions of alternate delegate. The four members receiving the highest number of votes in the alternate election will be the alternate delegates to the convention.
3. These delegates and alternate delegates will attend the conventions.”

BE IT RESOLVED THAT: Accordance and consideration is given for revising this section to be updated with Local 1005’s current amalgamated status and create a clearer definition as to the number of alternate delegates, as well as, assist with any financial constraints of the local at that time.

FURTHER BE IT RESOLVED THAT: Article 6, Section 3-e shall read:

“Eligible members shall be permitted to submit a letter of nomination for only one post, either delegate or alternate delegate.

1. Members receiving the highest number of votes in the delegate election shall be the delegates. The number of delegates from each unit of the amalgamated union will be determined by the International Union’s Constitutional call letter.
2. Local 1005, an amalgamated unit of the International Union, UAW, will elect alternate convention delegates as per Article 8, Section 8 of the UAW Constitution; therefore, Local 1005 will accept nominations for the positions of alternate delegate. The members receiving the highest number of votes, from each unit of the amalgamated union, in the alternate election will be the alternate delegates to the convention.
3. These delegates will attend the conventions. The number of alternate delegates, from each unit of amalgamated Local 1005, who will attend the conventions can be decided at a General Membership Meeting prior to the conventions.”
